VERSE 1

Bb F Cm
My heart is like an old apartment
Bb F Cm
An empty suitcase in the dark
Bb F Cm
Some people pack their things, some people see what morning brings but
Bb F Cm
In the end, they depart
Bb F Cm
I try to remember the better times
Bb Dm Cm
Beneath the Arizona stars
Bb F Cm
And when the morning came, it painted all the cliffs with flame but
Bb F Cm
Those days seem so far

CHORUS 1

Ab Eb
I, I try
Bb Fm
But striving for perfection is a waste of time
Ab Eb
I apologize
Bb
But all these imperfections are mine

VERSE 2

Bb F Cm
I think of arguments as blinded truths
Bb Dm Cm

You only see them in a certain light

Bb F Cm

You stand on solid ground, but love and grace cannot be found so

Bb Dm Cm

What good comes from the fight?

CHORUS 2

Ab Eb

I, I try

Bb Fm

But striving for perfection is a waste of time

Ab Eb

I apologize

Bb

But all these imperfections are mine

VERSE 3

Bb F Cm

I think that life is like a jack pine

Bb Dm Cm

We cycle through the growth and fire

Bb F Cm

When someone burns us down, we rise up through unlikely ground and

Bb Dm Cm

This time we grow even higher

CHORUS 3

Ab Eb

I, I try

Bb Fm

But striving for perfection is a waste of time

Ab Eb

I apologize

Bb Fm

But it wasn't all for nothing in the scheme of life

CHORUS 4

Ab Eb

I, I try

Bb

Fm

But striving for perfection is a waste of time
