VERSE 1

Em G
We sat beneath the stars
D A
At a fire and played our new guitars
Em G D Bm
And I wondered how long this was gonna last
Em G
Because picture perfect memories
D A
Just come with all those tougher things
Em G D Bm
And pain's the best reminder of our past

VERSE 2

Em G
I watched the meteors fall
D A
On a world that hardly cared at all
Em G D Bm
Leaving silver trails of dust across the sky
Em G
Of indigo blue that matched my mood
D A
And with constellations for tattoos
Em G D D
And I watched them fade away and quickly die

CHORUS 1

Bm G D
So many theories wrong and soon disproved
Bm G D
So many ideas lost among the feud
Bm G D Em
So many conversations that are sadly misconstrued
G A
And lost among debate and needless violence
We need the silence

INTERLUDE

Em G D Bm (hold)

VERSE 3

Em G
We walked in a haunted place
D A
With tattered walls and empty space
Em G D Bm
And a musty smell that drenched the nighttime air
Em G
Neither of us said a word
D A
And we waited til we heard the birds
Em G D
And realized not once had we ever been scared

CHORUS 2

Bm G D
So many theories wrong and soon disproved
Bm G D
So many ideas lost among the feud
Bm G D Em
So many conversations that are sadly misconstrued
G A
And lost among debate and needless violence
We need the silence

VERSE 4

Em G
I watched my grandpa's mind
D A
Fly away and leave some bits behind
Em G D Bm
That made him smile with each time that they appeared
Em G
I wonder if he feels the pain,

D A
It seems he never will complain
Em G D
Whenever his whole family is near

CHORUS 3

Bm G D
So many theories wrong and soon disproved
Bm G D
So many ideas lost among the feud
Bm G D Em
So many conversations that are sadly misconstrued
G A
And lost among debate and needless violence
We need the silence
