

Stitches and Seams

INTRO

C - Dm Am
C - Dm Am
C - Dm Am
C - Dm Am

VERSE 1

 F Am Dm Am
Sometimes it's so heavy, it sinks like a stone
C Dm Am
Into the pocket of my ragged coat
 F Am Dm Am
And just as in life, I walk outside alone
 C Dm Am
To the place where the trees are five hundred years old

INTERLUDE

C - Dm Am
C - Dm Am

VERSE 2

 F Am Dm Am
I'm critical, cynical, say what I mean
C Dm Am
I'll find the gray underneath all the green
 F Am Dm Am
Cause it thrives in the salt of the earth just between
 C Dm Am
The lives of the hopeful, in stitches and seams

INTERLUDE

C - Dm Am
C - Dm Am (stop)

CHORUS 1

 C Em Am C Em Am
If I can't speak my mind, then what can I leave behind
 C Dm Am
One fingerprint cannot survive in the dust
 C Dm Am
The strongest inventions will all turn to rust
 C Em Am Dm

The wisest intentions can't live without trust
C G F Am Dm
If life is a story, what's out there waiting for us

INTERLUDE

C - Dm Am
C - Dm Am

VERSE 3

F Am Dm Am
Sometimes it's so bright that it burns up the dark
C Dm Am
The state of the world and the state of your heart
F Am Dm Am
You fight your whole life, yet it tears you apart
C Dm Am
But wildfires are born from the tiniest spark

INTERLUDE 4

C - Dm Am
C - Dm Am

CHORUS 2

C Em Am C Em Am
If I can't speak my mind, then what can I leave behind
C Dm Am
One fingerprint cannot survive in the dust
C Dm Am
The strongest inventions will all turn to rust
C Em Am Dm
The wisest intentions can't live without trust
C G F Am Dm
If life is a story, what's out there waiting for us

INTERLUDE

C (stop)

SOLO

Dm Am F C
F C Em Em
Dm Am F C
F C Em Em

CHORUS 3

C Em Am C Em Am
If I can't speak my mind, then what can I leave behind
C Dm Am
One fingerprint cannot survive in the dust
C Dm Am
The strongest inventions will all turn to rust
C Em Am Dm
The wisest intentions can't live without trust
C G F Am Dm
If life is a story, what's out there waiting for us

OUTRO

C - Dm Am
C - Dm Am
C - Dm Am
C - Dm Am