

REMAIN THE SAME

A                                      E                      B
We were close when we were younger, to me you were my brother
A                                      E                      B
I would chase the sun for you, you'd do anything for me
A    E                      B
Time was clever, peered through branches like a stranger from a distance
A                                      E                                      B
So we thought we'd live forever, how it hurts just to remember everything

F#m                                      A
The years crash down like rain
I grow old and you remain the same
A      E      B
Remain the same

A-E      B

A                                      E                      B
We grew older, we were reckless, imagination endless
A                                      E                      B
We made a masterpiece of nothing, hung it for the world to see
A                                      E                      B
Though I faltered just behind you, I stayed there to remind you
A                                      E                      B
How to outrun every shadow, but you never learned how to let go of anything

F#m                                      A
The years crash down like rain
I grow old and you remain the same
A      E      B
Remain the same

A-E      B

BRIDGE

You went off on an adventure, and I stayed where it was safer

Time was constant, no longer stranger, but I was sure I'd see you later

VERSE 3

A E B

You had an impulse and you fought it, but then one day you bought it

A E B

And it only took a moment, one I wish I could forgive

A E B

I can't fill the hole you left with anything but our regrets

A E B

Sometimes I wish we'd never met, but I'm a fool who wouldn't change a single thing
