

MARROW

Intro

Verse 1

Em G Bm C
There's a thin crack in my coffee cup, a scuff received by time
Em G Bm C
It fans in all directions like a scar from lightning's bite
Em G Bm C
I can't shake off the shadows, but I cling hard to the light
Em G Bm C
I was looking for a reason why my heart itches to fight

Pre-chorus

Am C Am C
It eats at all my marrow, carves away my mind
Am C Am C
My bravery is compromised, my fear has made me blind

Chorus

Em G D A
It said easy, tiger, you'll get it next time around
Em G D A
Your silver bones, you'll give em back to the ground
Em G D A
Those easy winters never get written down
Em G D A G
It's decimation, it breaks us inside and out, breaks us inside and out

Verse 2

Em G Bm C
I was born in fever, little-fisted, little rage
Em G Bm C
I fought through a thunderhead to reach a fragile age
Em G Bm C
Coughed up all my memories til they crumpled up like shame
Em G Bm C
They begged to be a part of me and begged to have a name

Pre-chorus

Am C Am C

They ate at all my marrow, carved away my mind
Am C Am C
My bravery was compromised, my fear had made me blind

Chorus

Em G D A
They said easy, tiger, you'll get it next time around
Em G D A
Your silver bones, you'll give em back to the ground
Em G D A
Those easy winters never get written down
Em G D A
It's decimation, it breaks us inside and out

Verse 3

Em G Bm C
I follow Ariadne's Thread until I fall apart
Em G Bm C
Paper bags for lungs, a broken kickdrum for a heart
Em G Bm C
I seem full of life, but Mother Nature takes her toll
Em G Bm C
She'll take what she wants, and in a way she'll leave you whole

Pre-chorus

Am C Am C
She ate at all my marrow, carved away my mind
Am C Am C
All my fears were compromised, I left them all behind
